This particular operation is purely an aerial recon mission.
Moreover, I want to check out the effectiveness of offshore resupply soon.

I'm counting on you.

If I may, Admiral, I still think that it's far too soon for her.
I would advise levelling her up further, at least until she can carry bombers...

It'll be fine! Hayasui will do her best!
You don't look fine to me.
The Admiral is being troublesome as well.
He just loves new things

That's how it is.
We're just scouting out these waters this time.
It's not behind enemy lines, but these are still uncharted waters.
Keep your guard up, don't be reckless.
Well, it's fine.
Prepare yourself.
ドキッ
Oh? You....
Y-yes?!

ガチン ガチン
Eh!? Ah, yes!
Hayasui-san, have you sent out your recon plane yet?
Huh?
There's some problem with the catapult, I can't send out the plane.
ズズズ..
Your level just isn't high enough after all, huh?
S-Sorry.

Enemy found on the sonar
Roger.
Nui!!

ズズズ
Hm.
Hey, good job!
Enemy submarines are still out there! On guard!
What!?
This is bad!
Hayasui...
First Carrier Division!!

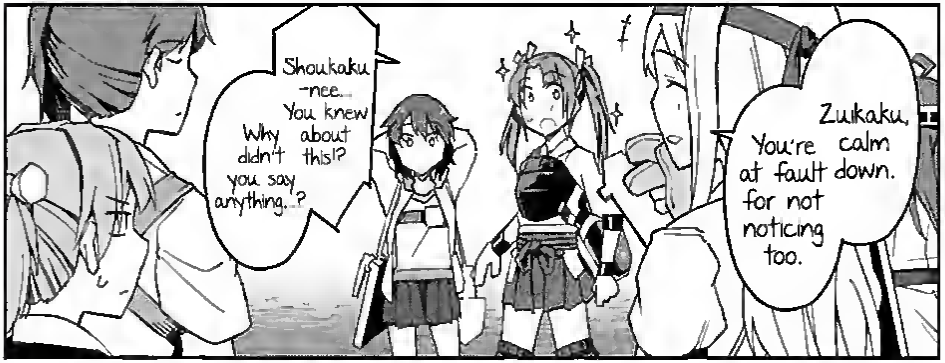
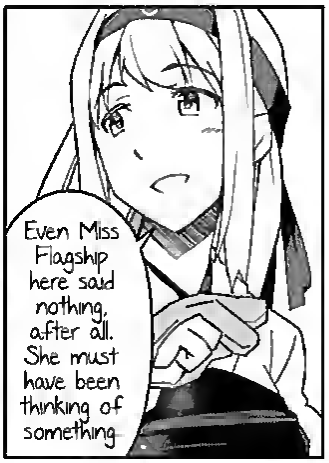
A Depth Charge...?
Who..?
Why is Miyuki here!?
Your hair is a mess!
Who the heck are you!?
Supply ship, Hayasui!
If it's re-supply that you want, I gotcha covered!
Also, a destroyer like you can't do offshore re-supply, right!?
Stop joking around. First Carrier Division!
You saved me, Hayasui-san.

I'm being serious here, you know!
ニヤーン
Here ya go!

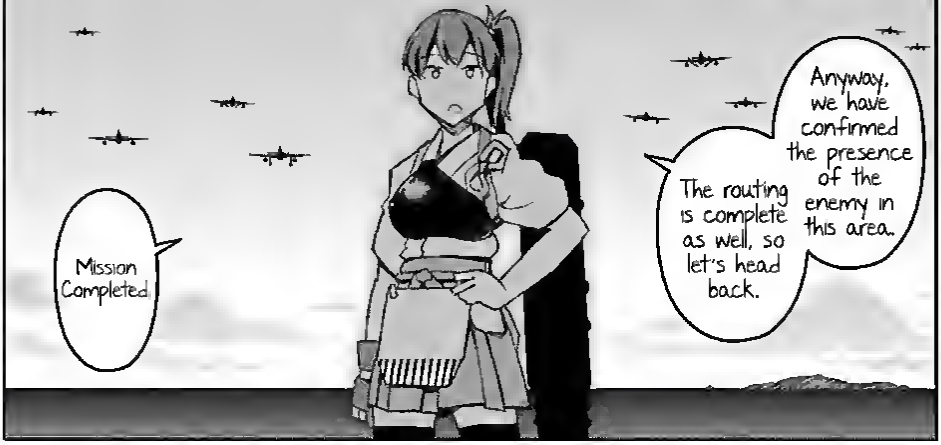


Shoukaku-nee... You knew about this? Why didn't you say anything...?
Zuikaku, you're at fault for not noticing too.
Calm down.

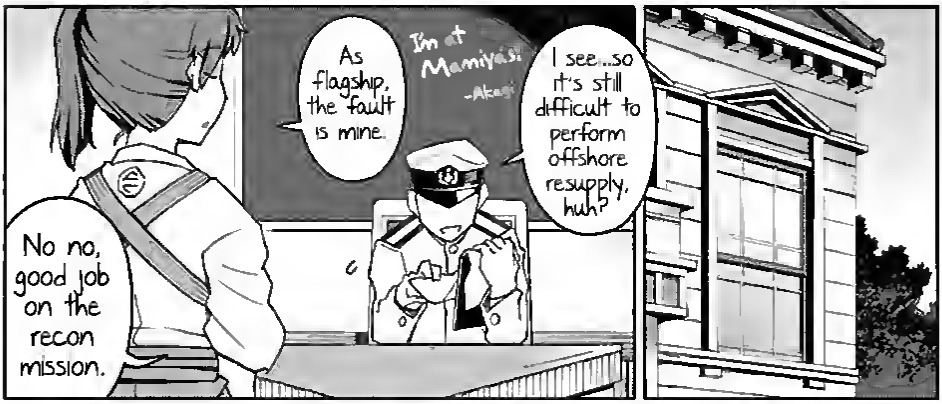
Surely you were considering the mission, no?
You sure talk a lot.



Even Miss Flagship here said nothing, after all. She must have been thinking of something.



Mission Completed.
The routing is complete as well, so let's head back.
Anyway, we have confirmed the presence of the enemy in this area.



No no, good job on the recon mission.
As flagship, the fault is mine.
I'm at Maniya's. -Akagi
I see...so it's still difficult to perform offshore resupply, huh?

Let's go Miyuki, or not!?
They found out right away after all.
Please let this be the last time, okay?

LEVEL UP!
How'd the expedition go?
A wise decision.
I'll level Hayasui up more.
